SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and submit to a drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervision and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter for use of a controlled substance.

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search conducted by the United States Probation Office at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall comply with all federal, state, and local sex offender registration laws and provide verification of registration to the probation officer.

The defendant shall participate in an evaluation to determine if sex offense specific treatment is needed, and if so, the defendant shall participate in a sex-offense specific treatment program. The defendant shall enter, cooperate, and complete said program until released by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by all policies and procedures of the sex-offense specific program. During the course of said treatment, the defendant shall be subject to periodic and random physiological testing which may include but is not limited to polygraph testing and/or other specialized assessment instruments. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with treatment based on a co-payment sliding fee scale approved by the United States Probation Office. Co-payments shall never exceed the total costs of treatment.

The defendant shall be prohibited from contact with children under the age of 18 without the prior written permission of the United States Probation Office and shall report to the United States Probation Office immediately, but in no event later than 24 hours, any unauthorized contact with children under the age of 18.

The defendant shall be prohibited from engaging in any occupation, business, profession, or volunteer work where he has access to children under the age of 18 without prior written approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall not loiter within 100 feet of schools, parks, playgrounds, arcades, or other places frequented by children under the age of 18.

The defendant shall not enter the premises or loiter near where the victim(s) resides, is employed or frequents except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the United States Probation Office.

The defendant shall pay the costs of any future counseling for the victim(s) of the instant offense, should counseling be pursued.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, gaming equipment with web and /or internet capability, or any audio/visual recording or producing equipment, except with the written permission of the probation officer.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, peripheral equipment, or any other device with access to any "on line computer services" at any location (including employment) without the prior written approval of the United States Probation Office. In addition, the defendant shall consent to the United States Probation Office or United States Probation Office service representative conducting random or periodic unannounced examinations of his computer(s) equipment, to which he has access, including web enable cell phones. The examination may include the retrieval and copying of all data from his computer(s) or any computers to which the defendant has access, and any internal and external peripherals to insure compliance with this condition and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection; the defendant shall, at the direction of the probation officer, consent to having installed on the computers, at the expense of the deft., any hardware or software systems to monitor or filter his computer use. Prior to installation of any such hardware or software systems, the deft. shall allow the US Probation Office to examine the computer and/or electronic storage device. The deft. shall pay for the costs associated with monitoring based on a co-payment fee approved by the US Probation Office. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The deft. shall warn any other residents, employers, or family members that the computers and any related equipment may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The deft. shall advise the probation officer of all computer, electronic equipment, and web enabled equipment, including cell phones, to which he possesses or has access within 24 hours of obtaining same.

The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the United States Probation Office so long as there is a balance on the Court-imposed financial obligation.

The defendant shall pay the fine as previously ordered by the Court.
